last summer, well likely succeed himself, as members of the association almost to a unit are pleased with the manner in which he has looked after the destinies of the club throughout his term of office, and during the automobile tournament of last month.

The association has in anticipation a greater race meet next year than ever before, and no doubt the race matters will be briefly discussed.

Commodore J. H. Allen, of the Halifax River Yacht Club, and E. L. Shear, also a member of the club, returned Friday afternoon from a visit to Titusville and Rockledge. At the latter place they spent Washington's birthday and attended the motorboat races there, which proved an exciting event.

In the ten mile race Mr. Shear's boat was one of the participants and was successful in carrying off second honors.

There was another race, a seven and a half miles, which attracted considerable attention and in which good speed was attained.

E. T. Conrad, with his racer the H. R. Y. C., was in the races, but did not carry off any of the prizes.

AN ENJOYABLE SOCIAL AFFAIR.

Schmidt's Villa the Scene Last Evening of the Pleasantest Social Functions of the Season.

Miss Host Henry Schmidt and his estimable lady were the hosts in one of the pleasantest social functions of the season, at their beautiful Villa last evening. The spacious rooms were beautifully decorated with potted plants and flowers and were a blaze of light and cheerfulness.

The assemblage numbered some of the best people of Daytona and the peninsula, and the beautiful gowns of the ladies, together with the full dress of most of the gentlemen blended pleasantly with the handsome surroundings.

Mrs. Spangler's orchestra furnished their usual excellent music for the occasion, and the disciples of tepalcote thoroughly enjoyed the mazes of the dance until a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt, whose hospitality is unbounded, were the recipients of many complimentary testimonials of the satisfaction with which the function was conducted.

The Grand March, led by Col. and Mrs. C. M. Bingham, took place promptly at nine o'clock. The intricate mazes of the beautiful march were charmingly carried out and elicited much applause from the assembled guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. E. Prince and the Misses Pansy and Violet, of Montreal, Canada, who have been stopping at The Pines, left Friday on a trip to St. Augustine.

*Dr. F. H. Houghton, Dentist, Suite 4, Opera House Block, Phone 32, 23-1v

Captain Finley, of the launch Maxine, carried a party up the Tomoka Thursday. The boat had about forty people on board and a very enjoyable day was spent. The party saw sixteen alligators. Friday the Maxine went to the Inlet, and equally as pleasant a day was spent. Captain Finley has the faculty for entertaining the guests of the Maxine, and those who have made trips on this boat are pleased with the manner in which they are entertained.

The body of the late John B. Stetson, the millionaire hat manufacturer of Philadelphia, who died last Sunday near DeLand, was buried in West Laurel Hill, Philadelphia, Thursday.

The Philadelphia North American, in speaking of the late Mr. Stetson, says:

"From a semi-authentic source it was learned that the fortune left by the dead manufacturer will approximate $10,000,000. It is believed that the bulk of this goes to his widow, his daughter, Mrs. Henry H. Rodols, and his two sons.

Numerous charities are not, however, forgotten, and it is said that his provision for the Stetson University at DeLand, Fla., is very liberal. His charities during his lifetime amounted to many thousands of dollars.

According to Mr. Stetson's wish, the funeral services were very simple. The factory closed on the day of the funeral and appropriate action was taken by the board of directors of the company.

Angler Fell Overboard

Richard Hunter, an enthusiastic angler who has frequented the central bridge for several days past, fell overboard Friday and timely assistance was rendered by N. N. Bailey, the bridge tender, and others who happened to be in the vicinity.

Hunter had been in the habit of perching himself on a box which was fastened to a telephone pole. The position was a dangerous one and he lost his balance and fell into the waters. His cries for help were heard and a heavy rope was thrown to him. It took four men to haul him to the top of the bridge.

*For sale, six $50 Florida East Coast Automobile Association bonds, bearing six per cent interest for $200. Apply to W. H. Peters, Hotel Despland.

Excellent progress is being made on the new house for Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Freeman, on Pine Street, at Daytona Beach. The house is almost ready for the plastering. Mr. Freeman is doing the work.

LIVELY MEETING IS PROMISED.

City Solons Will Meet Monday Evening.—
Question of City Physician to Come Up.—The Marshal.

The session of the city council on Monday evening promises in every way to be a lively affair.

Mayor Greene, it is understood, will appoint E. L. Smith, deputy sheriff and night watchman at the depot, as city marshal, to succeed M. H. Zuber.

The friends of the present marshal are doing what they can in his behalf and they are firm in their belief that he can fill the position in a satisfactory manner.

Guests of the Ivy Inn, about twenty in number, were over on the beach Friday, having an oyster roast. A congenial party, a perfect day, plenty of the bivalves and other edibles formed a happy combination that ensured a satisfying day for all concerned.

The mayor when he makes an appointment will have to report the same to the council for confirmation and it is known that the city solons do not altogether coincide with the views of the mayor in the appointment of Smith.

Marshal Zuber has some friends in the council who would vote for his confirmation. It is likely that the positions of street commissioner, city attorney and city physician will be filled at the meeting on Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bliss and Miss Nault, of Worcester, Mass., are sojourning at the Ridgewood.

A Poem for Today

TO YOUTH

By Edith M. Thomas

YOU have the rose for token;
I have dry leaf and thorn;
I have the sobbing vesper;
You morning bells at dawn;
I would that I were younger,
(Yet you grew never old)—
Would I had less of silver,
But you no less of gold.

LOVE'S PHILOSOPHY

By Percy Bysshe Shelley

THE fountains mingle with the river
And the rivers with the ocean;
The winds of heaven mix forever
With a sweet emotion;
Nothing in the world is single;
All things by a law divine
In one another's being mingle.
Why not I with thine?

See, the mountains kiss high heaven,
And the waves clasp one another;
No sister flower would be forgiven
If it disdained its brother.
And the sunlight clasps the earth,
And the moonbeams kiss the sea;
What are all these kissings worth
If thou kiss not me?

A SONG OF CONTENT

By James J. Platt

THE eagle nestles near the sun;
The dove's low nest for me!
The eagle 's on the eagle's nest;
The dove 's in our green tree.
For hearts that beat like thine and mine
Heaven blesses humble earth;
The angels of our heaven shall shine
The angels of our heart!

WHEN THERE'S LOVE AT HOME

Anonymous

THERE is beauty all around
When there's love at home;
There is joy in every sound
When there's love at home.
Peace and plenty here abide,
Smiling sweet on every side,
Time doth softly, sweetly glide
When there's love at home!
Love at home! Love at home!
Time doth softly, sweetly glide
When there's love at home!

All the earth's a garden sweet,
Making life a bliss complete
When there's love at home!
Love at home! Love at home!
Making life a bliss complete
When there's love at home!

Kindly heaven smiles above
When there's love at home;
All the earth is filled with love
When there's love at home!
Sweeter sings the brooklet by,
Brighter beams the azure sky,
Oh, there's one who smiles on high
When there's love at home!
Love at home! Love at home!
Oh, there's one who smiles on high
When there's love at home!
